

INDEX

CHAPTER I

General profiles	1
1. The origins and rationale of consumer law	1
2. The erosion of traditional codified principles: some examples	3
3. The Consumer Code	6
4. The notion of consumer or user	8
5. The notion of trader	12
6. The notions of consumer and user associations, producer and product	13
7. The rights of consumers and users	14
8. Education and information	15

CHAPTER II

Advertising and unfair commercial practices	19
1. Regulatory evolution	19
2. The prohibition of unfair commercial practices	20
3. Misleading commercial practices. Misleading actions	22
4. Misleading omissions and commercial practices considered misleading in all cases	25
5. Aggressive commercial practices	28
6. Enforcement and remedies	29
7. Advertising	31

CHAPTER III

Unfair terms	35
1. Standardised contracting in the Civil Code	35
2. The introduction of the regulation on unfair terms in contracts between consumers and traders	36
3. The notion of unfair terms	36
4. The grey list	39
5. The black list	41
6. The seller's right of recourse and choice-of-law clauses	42
7. Remedies against unfair terms: protective nullity	43

8. The injunctive action and administrative protection	» 45
--	------

CHAPTER IV

The abuse of economic dependency	» 49
1. Legal basis and rationale of the institution	» 49
2. Subjective scope and notion of “dependency”	» 51
3. Typical cases and practices	» 53
4. The different case of abuse of a dominant position	» 56
5. Sanctions and invalidity regime.....	» 58
6. Available protection and dual track: civil remedies and administrative action	» 60

CHAPTER V

Consumer credit	» 63
1. Regulatory framework and definition	» 63
2. Subjective and objective scope of application	» 65
3. The linked credit agreement	» 67
4. Pre-contractual obligations	» 69
5. The creditworthiness assessment.....	» 71
6. Form and content requirements “under penalty of nullity”	» 73
7. Right of withdrawal and early termination	» 76

CHAPTER VI

Procedures for the settlement of over-indebtedness crises.....	» 79
1. The Business Crisis and Insolvency Code	» 79
2. Consumer over-indebtedness	» 81
3. Family procedures.....	» 82
4. The restructuring of the consumer’s debts	» 83
5. The controlled liquidation of the over-indebted.....	» 86
6. Discharge of debt	» 88

CHAPTER VII

Contracts concluded away from business premises and distance contracts	» 93
1. Introduction and regulatory evolution	» 93
2. The notions of contracts concluded outside business premises and distance contracts	» 94
3. Scope of application and exclusions.....	» 95

4. Pre-contractual information obligations.....»	97
5. Formal requirements and remedies in case of omitted information..... »	99
6. The right of withdrawal and its exceptions	100
7. Effects of withdrawal and obligations of the parties	103
8. Distance marketing of financial services to consumers	105
9. Other consumer rights and unsolicited supplies	107

CHAPTER VIII

Timeshare, long-term holiday products, resale and exchange contracts.....»	109
1. Regulatory framework and European influence	109
2. The various types of timeshares: real estate, share-based and hotel timeshare.....»	110
3. “Linked” contracts	113
4. Advertising and information obligations.....»	115
5. The requirements of the contract: rights and obligations	117

CHAPTER IX

Contracts relating to the provision of tourist services.....»	121
1. Definition of tourist package and scope of application	121
2. The contractual parties and the nature of the different relationships	123
3. Information obligations in the pre-contractual phase	124
4. Conclusion of the contract and modifications during performance	125
5. Breach of contract and liability of the organiser.....»	128
6. Compensation for damage from ruined holidays.....»	130

CHAPTER X

The liability of the producer	133
1. Introduction	133
2. The scope of application	134
3. The objective nature of the liability.....»	136
4. The notion of defective product.....»	139
5. Plurality of liable parties and contributory negligence of the injured party	141
6. Compensable damage and liability exemption clauses.....»	142
7. Statute of limitations and forfeiture	145

CHAPTER XI

The sale of goods and the supply of digital content and services ...»	149
1. The regulatory evolution between the Civil Code and sector legislation	» 149
2. The objective and subjective scope of application.....»	151
3. Conformity with the contract and the obligations of the professional operator.....»	153
4. The liability of the seller and the trader	» 155
5. Remedies in the sale of goods	» 156
6. Remedies in the supply of digital content and services.....»	159
7. Modification of the digital content or service	» 161
8. The conventional guarantee	» 162